

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,  Plaintiff,  vs.  (2) TYRIN THOMAS, JR.,  Defendant.	4:22-CR-40046-KES  REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

This matter came before the court for a change of plea hearing on Friday, October 27, 2023. The defendant, Tyrin Thomas, Jr., appeared in person and by his counsel, Aaron Pilcher. The United States appeared by its Assistant United States Attorney.

The defendant consented in open court to the change of plea before a United States Magistrate Judge. This court finds that the defendant's consent was voluntary and upon the advice of counsel. The government also consented to the plea hearing before a magistrate judge. Further, the parties waived their right to object to the report and recommendation.

Defendant has reached a plea agreement wherein he intends to plead guilty to count one of the second superseding indictment which charges him with conspiracy to distribute a controlled substance in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841(a)(1) and 846. At the hearing, the defendant was advised of the nature of the charges to which the defendant would plead guilty and the maximum penalties applicable, specifically: 10 years' mandatory minimum imprisonment and a maximum of lifetime imprisonment; a $10 million fine; or both; a mandatory minimum of five years on supervised release and up to a lifetime on supervised release; an additional 5 years' imprisonment if supervised release is revoked; restitution; and a $100 special assessment.

Upon questioning the defendant personally in open court, it is the finding of the court that the defendant is fully competent and capable of entering an informed plea, that the defendant is aware of the nature of the charges and the consequences of the plea, and that his plea of guilty to count one of the second superseding indictment is a knowing and voluntary plea supported by an independent basis in fact containing each of the essential elements of the offense. It is my report and recommendation that the defendant's plea of guilty be accepted and that he be adjudged guilty of that offense.

DATED this 27th day of October, 2023.
